

Remember, our overarching topics are the following:

- Ancient Civilizations
- Colonialism
- Rainforest deforestation
- Chapter 9 vocabulary (South America)

*Latin American Revolutions will NOT be on this quiz (11/30-12/1)

Kahoot! Questions from in-class review game:

1. European explorers were driven by what?
2. What European country had the largest empire in Latin America?
3. What is one example of ancient people adapting to living in mountains?
4. A system in which one country rules another country & benefits from trade is called?
5. What are some examples of Spanish cultural traits passing to Latin America?
6. True or false: The government of Brazil encouraged poor people to move to the rainforest
7. The Ancient empires of the Maya & Aztec had what in common?
8. Subsistence farmers grow food and raise animals for... survival OR profit?
9. Modern day Brazil speaks primarily what language?
10. What is an example of land conflict in Brazil?
11. True or false: Deforestation has led to a raised standard of living for some people
12. Which of the interest groups has the most SUSTAINABLE jobs in the rainforest?
13. What type of landform is surrounded by water on 3 sides?
14. True or False: The amount of the world's oxygen produced by the Amazon rainforest is 10%
15. What type of landform is the Pampas in South America?
16. Which of the following is an example of a cordillera?
17. GDP stands for what? How did Brazil's GDP rise?
18. When some place do NOT benefit from social and economic development it's called...?
19. What is the term for well educated people migrating to the U.S. from poor countries?
20. What are the problems caused by deforestation?